

PRESS RELEASE

FLYING DISC TO BE LAUNCHED FOR RECORD CANINE CATCH!

Knott's Berry Farm in Buena Park and LaMirada Regional Park in LaMirada are the hosting facilities for this year's Hero Disc Ashley Whippet Invitational World Championships. Ashley Whippet, the world famous disc catching dog who broke onto the canine sports scene at a playoff game in Dodger Stadium in 1974, will bring his history to the Southern California area on Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st - 2nd 2008.

Watch as the world's best teams compete in Freestyle (two minute routine) and Distance (one minute limit) to see who will be crowned the 2008 AWI World Champion!

Free admission for all guests and their families.

Special Event Attraction:

Hero Disc World Record Attempt

Friday and Saturday will be an official challenge to the world record in canine distance catching.

Competitors will try to break the 1994 record of 390'1".

Event information:

Friday, Oct. 31st, 8:00am to 6:00pm

Ashley Whippet Invitational Western Regional Qualifier
LaMirada Regional Park

Saturday, Nov. 1st, 8:00am to 6:00pm

Ashley Whippet Invitational World Championships
LaMirada Regional Park

Sunday, Nov. 2nd, 10:00am to 5:00pm

Ashley Whippet Invitational World Championships
Knott's Berry Farm (Park Pavilion)

Contact information:

John Ahart- Event Director

909-900-7639 office

909-574-2567 fax

john@herodiscusa.com

Press badges can be obtained by contacting John Ahart.

